

Supporting Employee Engagement

Community Team Challenges

As an employer, engaging your company in Community Team Challenges is an increasingly popular way to motivate staff while supporting your local community.

CCWorks can source community projects suitable for teams of up to 10 staff up to large teams of 50+. Involving cross company, cross department or single department teams in projects that range from one-day decorating or conservation challenges to longer, more complex projects are beneficial in many ways;

Community Team Challenges-

- Boost your employees' commitment, morale and motivation
- Enhance your employees skills
- Improve your public image
- Encourage team building and internal communication
- Show your employees that they work for a company which cares

Our Services.

We offer a complete brokerage service to ensure the achievement of all your company's objectives whilst transforming your community partner's project.

The service offers beginning to end project management of your Community Team Challenge - from identifying a range of appropriate projects within the community to project management on the day. All our Challenges are bespoke, identifying and addressing the exact needs of your company. Services can include:

Sourcing

- a) Agreeing a detailed brief with the project leader
- b) Sourcing a range of appropriate team challenges for individual teams
- c) Producing a long-list of four to six projects with project outlines
- d) Consulting with the project leader to short-list a choice of two suitable challenges
- e) Carrying out further research on short-listed projects and present findings to client in the form of a short report and presentation

Pre-planning and Event

- a) Producing a project plan and action list
- b) Carrying out an on-site risk assessment (with the project leader) in advance of the Challenge
- c) Acting as co-ordinator with the voluntary sector partner
- d) Liaising with the Project Leader for materials budget
- e) Ensuring all actions are carried out to enable the Team to turn up prepared to carry out the task
- a) Coordinate all activities on the day
